NEW FOR 2004

The latest in a line luxurious wood finishes for the Mapex Orion Classic Series, the new Orion Classic Burlwood is sure to please the player with a passion for beautiful, hi-quality, professional drums. Six plys of North American maple are capped off with a final incredible ply of highly figured burlwood.

A full line of components and kit configurations are available.

Only the highest quality meets the standard.

Like all Mapex drums, the Orion Classic Burlwood is manufactured in Mapex's wholly-owned ISO 9001 certified factory.
